

12 English Idioms of Patience

Patience is a virtue.

Hang (on) in there.

Rome wasn't built in a day.

To try [somebody's] patience.

To lose one's / run out of patience.

Hold your horses!

To play the long game.

To take [something] one step at a time.

No hurry.

A watched pot never boils.

Wait and see.

All things come to those who wait.