Plaster Cast (Original Text)

Line

1 Two weeks later Dennis broke his ankle playing football with some friends from work.
2 He was rushed to hospital, moaning and groaning – not in an ambulance, but in his
3 dad’s work van. His friends and colleagues gathered in the hospital waiting room
4 while Dennis had an x-ray and was examined by the doctor. Several long hours later
5 Maggie was talking to her grandma on the phone, “Don’t worry, grandma. It looks like 6 it’ll be alright. He says he’s in agony, but the doctor said it wasn’t too serious.
7 Apparently, when he broke it the bones all stayed in the right place; and the ligaments
8 aren’t damaged.”
9 Dennis was sitting up in bed reading his first get well card, which had been
10 hand-delivered by his girlfriend Sarah. “I won’t be playing football for a while, lads,”
11 said Dennis to his mates. “They’ll let the swelling go down; then they’ll have to put it
12 in a plaster cast. And they’re saying I’ll need crutches.” “For six to eight weeks”, said
13 his dad, finishing a bunch of grapes, “Put your feet up for a bit.” “After that you’ll start 14 the physiotherapy,” added his mum.
15 “Can I sign your plaster, Dennis,” asked Sarah shyly. Dennis was about to 16 say yes, but then he noticed the frowning face of his sister out of the corner of his 17 eye. He remembered Mandy, the other girl he liked, and mumbled, “Er, no. I don’t 18 think so.” Then, seeing her disappointment, he said, “Well, OK. Just your initials.”
