

Talk a Lot

Money

General Questions

1. Are there any words or phrases that you don't know? Find them in a dictionary.
2. Take some cards. Describe the word or phrase on a card without saying it.
3. How many words and phrases have... a) 1 syllable, b) 2 syllables, c) 3 syllables, d) 4 syllables?
4. Put words and phrases with more than one syllable into groups according to where the strong stress falls.
5. Put the words and phrases into alphabetical order.
6. Find and put into groups... a) compound nouns, b) words with suffixes.
7. Put together words and phrases that have the same number of letters.
8. Put together words and phrases that start with the same letter.
9. How many words and phrases can you remember when they are all turned over?
10. Put words and phrases that contain the same sounds into groups, using the IPA.

Lesson Questions

1. Which word sounds like... a) sank, b) bone, c) beef, d) fax, e) neck, f) goat, g) worse?
2. Put all of the different kinds of payment together into a group.
3. This is money that you have, but which you don't want to spend at the moment.
4. This is a loan that you get to buy a house or somewhere to live.
5. Find all of the negative words to do with money and describe three of them.
6. This is an organisation which raises money to spend on good causes.
7. This is a place where you can make – or lose – a lot of money.
8. Which word means money that... a) you are given by the bank, b) you receive when somebody you are close to dies, c) you get from the government when you are sick or unemployed, d) you receive from your employer, e) you have to pay to the government, f) you borrow, but have to pay back over a number of months, g) is added to your bank account by agreement with your bank?
9. Put all of the people together into a group and describe what they do.
10. This happens when you take out money from a cashpoint.
11. This is something that you hope will grow and make you wealthier.