

Grammar – Relative Clauses

The Twelve Disciples – Using Relative Clauses 1

- A. Do some research, if necessary, and fill some of the gaps with the names of Jesus' disciples.
B. Complete the other gaps with a relative pronoun (who, whose, or which) or adverb (when, where).
C. Circle D or ND to show whether the clause is defining or non-defining:

*defining relative clause: the following phrase is integral to the sentence, e.g.
'I live in a town where there is a busy market.'*

*non-defining relative clause: the following phrase is not integral, e.g.
'I live in a town called Chesterfield, which has a busy market.'*

- D. Write a Bible verse to support your answer. If there is no biblical evidence, write TRADITION.
