

Test Your Grammar Skills

What's the Point...? Punctuation Practice 2

Circle the correct punctuation mark below:

1. This is a colon:

! : “ ” – ()

2. This is a hyphen:

! : “ ” – ()

3. These are called speech marks:

! : “ ” – ()

4. This is an exclamation mark:

! : “ ” – ()

5. These are called brackets:

! : “ ” – ()

6. We use these punctuation marks to show when someone is speaking or to quote someone:

! : “ ” – ()

7. We use this punctuation mark to link together two related words:

! : “ ” – ()

8. We use these punctuation marks to surround information that, while it may be interesting, is not vital to the meaning of the sentence:

! : “ ” – ()

9. We use this punctuation mark at the end of a sentence to show a strong feeling, e.g. humour, disbelief or anger:

! : “ ” – ()

10. We use this punctuation mark at the end of a phrase to show that there is related information to follow in the next phrase:

! : “ ” – ()

This worksheet can be photocopied and used without charge

<https://purlandtraining.com/>

Test Your Grammar Skills

What's the Point...? Punctuation Practice 2

Answers:

1. This is a colon:

! : “ ” - ()

2. This is a hyphen:

! : “ ” - ()

3. These are called speech marks:

! : “ ” - ()

4. This is an exclamation mark:

! : “ ” - ()

5. These are called brackets:

! : “ ” - ()

6. We use these punctuation marks to show when someone is speaking or to quote someone:

! : “ ” - ()

7. We use this punctuation mark to link together two related words:

! : “ ” - ()

8. We use these punctuation marks to surround information that, while it may be interesting, is not vital to the meaning of the sentence:

! : “ ” - ()

9. We use this punctuation mark at the end of a sentence to show a strong feeling, e.g. humour, disbelief or anger:

! : “ ” - ()

10. We use this punctuation mark at the end of a phrase to show that there is related information to follow in the next phrase:

! : “ ” - ()